

Newbridge

FROM A PLACE OF WORSHIP TO A BEAUTIFUL HOME!

What's not to love about this carefully crafted home. This recently converted Anglican Church originally commissioned way back in 1933 still stands proudly in the picturesque village of Newbridge just 25mins south of the Regional Centre of Bathurst. Totally built from scratch this home is a delight to walk through and features 3 bedrooms (2 with walk-in robes) sunken kitchen dining area, glorious wood heater and an upstairs master suite with parents retreat and R/C Air. Outside you have shady verandahs big enough for entertaining on those sultry summer nights. You'll love the large landscaped yard with standout classical brick pillar fences and established gardens. And to top it all off is this impressive 12m x 8m shed with mezzanine. This property is a sight to behold, be very quick to book your inspection!
